Farmers' market proposed

by Jerry Grozelle

A proposal to allow the use of Minden's Village Green, on Main Street behind the CIBC, for a farmers' market on Saturdays during the summer, met with mixed reactions at the Minden Hills council meeting. Stuart Brandon of the Haliburton County Advisory Committee for Marketing and Economic Development asked for council's permission to use the Village Green as a site for local producers to sell their fruits and vegetables. A limited number of local craftspeople would also be allowed to sell the items they make as well.

Councillor Peter Oyler had some reservations at first. He asked Public Works Superintendent Clayton Cameron how much it cost to sod the Elementary school children from throughout the county took part in the competitions. Complete results from the event will appear next in next week's edition.

A grand opening ceremony for the Trails and Tours Network kiosks was held at the site in Lutterworth Township, next to the Noble Motel. Close to 50 people were on hand for the festivities Wednesday, May 25.

Rachel Gillooly, Co-ordinator of the Haliburton County Trails and Tours Network, acknowledged the assistance of the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce, its staff and directors, for their contributions in support of the Trails and Tours Network and its staff. "It's an excellent example of a day-to-day partnership," she said.

Gillooly read a message from Deputy Prime Minister Herb Gray. "Congratulations and warm wishes on the official opening of the new information kiosks. This truly is a step forward for Haliburton County in promoting Haliburton County's premier trails and tours network. The addition of the

Remembering their son

A donation in memory of their son Jamie was made by Jim and Bernice Hollett last week, to the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Foundation.

The cheque for $8,000 was presented to Foundation manager Dale Walker, right, and Capital Campaign chairman Don Popple, left. The donation was made on behalf of the Hollett family including Anna and Willy. The Holletts operate the Jay Lake Trailer Park.

Jamie Hollett passed away as a result of a motorcycle accident 12 years ago. Initially the Holletts established a scholarship at his high school. However, when the school closed, the Holletts chose to donate the money to the foundation. Dale Walker said the funds would be used to purchase a double and single intravenous pump for both the Minden and Haliburton hospitals. The Holletts note that their guests at the trailer park have used both facilities over the years.

County hosts Think Bowl competitions

Think Bowl 2001 is a problem solving competition. It is designed to prepare students to discover solutions to political, social, economic or environmental issues.

Students spend the day uncovering a solution to a given problem, such as, "What should our large cities do to solve their garbage disposal problems?" and present their resolution to the larger audience. Students will prepare for this event in their schools, expanding their thinking beyond the norm by practising creative problem solving skills. Teams of students will discuss, brainstorm, argue, research and dramatize their solution to given problems, increasing their skills as divergent thinkers, listeners, communicators and cooperative members of a team.

The school board will be holding its local competition on Monday, May 28, at the Pinestone Inn. Two teams, one junior and one intermediate, will advance to represent the board at the provincial level competition. The Provincial competition, Think Bowl 2001, will be held in Haliburton County, at the Leslie Frost Centre, hosted by Trillium Lakelands District school Board on Friday, June 8.

Selected students will travel to the Leslie Frost Centre from around the province for this one-day event.

Let's put it over the top!

Family pet dead following black bear attack

by Matthew Sittler

Silence now greets visitors at a Reynolds Road family home off Horseshoe Lake Road Two.

Webster, the Skelding family's seven year old male shitz-pooch was attacked and killed, then buried by a bear on their property the evening of Wednesday May 16. The family has since buried the pet who would normally bark and greet guests at the driveway. They continue to wonder, however, how tragic their story could have been, had the circumstances been different.

"He was here up until eight thirty that night," recalled Webster's co-owner Marilyn Skelding. The couple's eldest son would pull in the driveway within the hour and be greeted by Webster as was his happy custom. That evening, the son was the last to see the dog alive.

In nice weather, Webster wouldn't necessarily come in immediately after dinner, they said, but the part of this story that really bothers the Skeldings is the ominous lack of noise associated with his disappearance. "We didn't hear anything. A couple of days later, my wife talked me into taking out a couple of the other hounds who had grown up with him," said Bill Skelding. "I let one sniff his bed and was led in a circle around the property down to just off into the woods where we found him. My suspicion is that he just ran down there and the bear was waiting and killed him."

The Skelding's youngest son said he had found a bear track near where Webster was found. "The other dog dug him up, but only his tail was showing," said Bill. "It's a tragic thing."

Marilyn said her four year old nephew had been visiting that same night and had been playing with the dog unsupervised outside. "Not one sound" she said. "It just scares you to death, wondering what might have happened."

Mr. Skelding has already seen 10 bears this year, and attributes the numbers and the attack occurrences to the cancellation of the spring bear hunt. "The bear has nothing to eat at this time of year," he points out. "Rationally, I think this was a case of the wrong place/wrong time, but bears coming around like this can be attributed to that." Skelding said he wouldn't want a bear around a small child. "Our nephew could have easily followed Webster into the bush that night," added his wife. "Actually, even our neighbors are very concerned and asked me 'what do you do if you see one?'"

Bears will continue to travel close to homes until there are berries and other food sources readily available for them, added Skelding, who is an avid hunter. "This is going on four or five days now this year that I've heard about. They are a bear-eat machine - that's what they are - and when they bury their food like that it means they're coming back."

Holiday weekend accident tests response team

A two car accident on Deep Bay Road, south of Minden, during the holiday weekend, sent ten people to hospital and tested the emergency medical response capabilities of the county.

The accident occurred Sunday evening, May 20. According to the police, three vehicles were southbound when the third vehicle in line, a 1995 Buick driven by Michael-Lee Daoust age 23 years, of Whitby, with six occupants including the driver, pulled out into the northbound lane to pass the two vehicles.

The second vehicle, a 2000 Pontiac Firebird driven by Jason Keeping age 23 years from Scarborough, with four occupants including the driver, also pulled out into the northbound lane at the same time, striking the Buick.

Both vehicles went into the west ditch, with the Buick rolling and landing upside down, and the Pontiac striking a rock pile. The first vehicle was not involved in the collision.

The Minden Fire Department and the ambulance attended the scene. Firefighters had to cut the roof off of the Pontiac in order to remove the occupants.

The driver of the Pontiac, Jason Keeping as well as one of his passengers, Lucas Vordemberge, age 23 years from Scarborough were air lifted to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto. Keeping was listed in critical condition and Vordemberge as serious. Another passenger, Mark Jones age 23 years, also from Scarborough, was transported by ambulance and treated at Minden Hospital.

The occupants of the Buick were taken to Minden Hospital, where they were treated and released. An OPP Technical Traffic Collision Investigator was called to the scene. The incident is currently under investigation and charges are pending.

According to a report given to the May 23 meeting of Haliburton County Council by Emergency Medical Services co-ordinator Bob English, the accident was the first major incident to occur on a Sunday evening since the service added an extra shift. "The enhancement of hours on the Sunday day vehicle proved to be beneficial," his report stated. "Prior to this, back-up at this call would have been provided by a neighbouring service that would have delayed a full response to the scene. The first ambulance arrived on the scene eight minutes after the call was received, with the other two arriving 15 minutes later.

The EMS report notes that two air ambulances were used to transport the injured to Toronto after they were stabilized at the Minden Hospital. One of the injured was trapped inside the overturned vehicle for over an hour, according to the report.

"The co-operation between police, EMS and Fire personnel at the scene went extremely well. Each service completed its tasks as trained and worked collectively to assist each other," the report concludes.

Council cautious about farmers' market

area, suggesting that the grass could be damaged and require re-sodding. Cameron indicated that it would cost about $2,500 to re-sod the entire area.

Oyler also questioned whether allowing craftspeople to sell their items would have a negative impact on local businesses, in the immediate area, that sell crafts. Councillor Bill Valentine noted that these businesses pay taxes year round.

The proposal submitted by Brandon suggested that the vendors of farm grown produce, which could include maple syrup and related products, would outnumber craft vendors by a ratio of about four to one. With that information, Oyler withdrew his objection to the sale of crafts.

Brandon said that due to the short growing season here, local produce may not be available early in the season and at that time, it may not be viable to maintain a 4:1 ratio of produce sellers to craft vendors. He expects that to change as local produce becomes available.

Councillor Bill Obee wondered if the parking lot adjacent to the council chambers would be a better location so vendors could sell their products directly from the back of their pickup trucks. Such a system, he continued, would eliminate the need to unload products from the vehicles and move them to a table on the Green.

Brandon said he is acting as a facilitator and it will be the responsibility of the Farmers' Association to organize and carry out the implementation. He said the idea came up during discussions with Dorset WinterFest officials. It was pointed out that the Dorset Farmers' Market is very successful. Brandon said he has consulted with the Minden Business Association, the Haliburton Business Association and the area agricultural representative, all of whom were receptive to the idea of farmers' markets in Haliburton County.

"Everybody seemed interested," he said.

Brandon said farmers' markets would have a positive impact on year-round businesses. "They should enhance the other businesses," Brandon said. "I spoke to one grocer who was concerned about other vendors impacting his business, but when I asked if previous farmers' markets had an effect on business, the response was, 'what other farmers' markets?'" From that comment, Brandon concluded that farmers' markets which have operated in the past had no noticeable effect on other sellers of produce.

There is an organization of farmers' markets called Farm Markets Ontario, which has about 140 members. Brandon said a local association would be encouraged to join that organization to "lean on their expertise."

In the end, council supported the idea provided the governing body be responsible for any damages which may occur. The local Farmers' Association is expected to organize and operate the market. It will be required to provide liability insurance, which includes the municipality as an insured party.

The next step, according to Brandon, is to get a list of interested parties and set up a meeting. "We're hoping to get it up and running by the first of July," Brandon said. The preliminary plan is to operate farmers' markets at various locations across the county for about 14 Saturdays from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Anyone interested in participating in a farmers' market in Haliburton County is encouraged to contact Stu Brandon at 286-1483. He will attempt to bring all the individuals and organizations together to formulate a plan.

Worth a try

There is no question that Minden could benefit from another attraction or two. The community enjoys a regular rotation of events; the upcoming Timberfest, Canada Day celebrations Rotary Carnival and Fall Fair being some good examples. While these events help to put the community on the map, they are all once a year events. The suggestion that a farmers' market be tried in the community, therefore, is worth examining.

The market was tried in this community a number of years ago. The effort drew mixed opinions as to the success of the venture. Those with more realistic expectations seemed to be satisfied with what happened, while others were disappointed. Since this area is far from an agricultural heartland, and the season for fresh vegetables is later in the summer, it is unlikely the market will cause any significant economic dislocation for those in a similar field.

The market could also be a definite attraction for individuals looking for a different shopping experience. It would offer a venue for maple syrup producers and could include items from our many artisans and craftspeople in the area. For those who are concerned that the market would affect existing businesses, the municipality could monitor the impact and if the business community felt the market wasn't contributing to the local economy it could be shut down.

A farmers' market would add something to the Minden shopping experience and could be one of the weekly attractions the community needs to bring more visitors to the village.

Protecting the rights of non-smokers

Editor:

Before locals start a tirade about the city folks taking over, I would like them to know that we have owned property here for over 50 years. I am part of the majority who is a non-smoker.

My daughter has asthma and cannot tolerate smoke without having an asthma attack. She has a right to be free from exposure to toxic substances in government, public and retail places. I expect leadership from the Health Unit and our local government to provide us with a safe environment.

As a society we have changed. At one time beating a dog, kids and even the wife was tolerated. Wasn't it normal to drink and drive? Boys will be boys and bully the weak kids. Racial slurs and discrimination were institutionalized with comments such as, 'if you don't like it, go back where you came from'.

These attitudes are wrong and were always wrong. Smoking in public places should never be allowed, to protect weakened citizens such as my daughter. These are some of my recent experiences.

Several years ago the manager of the Minden Arena refused to tell a friend who was smoking under a no smoking sign beside my daughter to stop. He was fired.

I went to a spring craft sale upstairs at our arena and we tried to stay in the small non-smoking section. However, they allow smoking in the snack bar area. Non-smokers were sandwiched between two smoking sections. Vendors were hostile when asked not to smoke when serving us.

At Sunny's Convenience, I asked the sales lady not to smoke. She must have realized the pursuit of their addiction was in appropriate, because she yelled at me saying this area of the store allowed smoking. The next day, to their credit, when I contacted the owner of the store, I was promised no more smoking.

Unfortunately, we only have one barber shop in town. On two occasions I have asked the barber not to smoke. Recently (May 24) he asked me to leave his shop when I asked him to stop.

Good customers are always right. No one should have to tolerate being exposed to toxic, harmful and life threatening substances to obtain service. We don't have another barber shop in Minden. We ask why our business section is having problems? If owners show such callous disregard for their customers we will not support them.

Other businesses have responded to my request for a non-smoking environment. This attitude reminds me of southern United States towns. It is wrong. How do other citizens feel?

I visited the community police station and talked to the OPP. They informed me there was no bylaw against smoking. I will be contacting the Health Unit and our councillors to seek leadership and by-laws to outlaw this filthy and harmful practice.

Keaney Chrysler and Minden Subaru are now non-smoking because we discussed this issue. In the last eight years, our family has purchased six cars from these dealerships. The Brown Owl and Mark's Restaurant will seat us away from smoking so my daughter can eat out.

With a refusal to butt out, I need to seek the Health Unit's support and our local council to drag businesses, which still allow smoking, kicking and screaming into the twentieth century.

It is an issue we can no longer ignore. Addicts do not have rights to make me participate in their addiction. Politicians need to have the courage to do the right thing, now!

Bears make their presence known

Editor:

This is to advise and caution all residents of Lower Welch Lake, Upper Welch Lake and possibly Kabakwa Lake that there is a very large black bear in the vicinity.

On Sunday, May 20, at approximately 10:45 pm, my wife spotted a black bear near our bird feeders. The bear promptly and casually toppled both feeders, ate its contents, including that of a peanut holder, then moved on. The whole scenario lasted until approximately 12:30 a.m., (Monday).

At the time, we were entertaining visitors from an adjoining cottage who were anxious to get home. Although I telephoned the OPP around 11 p.m., I was advised that little or nothing could be done. In the meantime, there were four very anxious and very concerned "adults" trying to avoid visual contact with the bear. Oh yeah, how'd we know it was a large bear. Well, the bear stood and tried to reach a squirrel feeder on an adjoining tree. The feeder is approximately six and a half to seven feet above the ground and the bear almost touched it with his nose when standing and holding the tree trunk. In my estimation, the bear weighed 400-500 pounds and stood approximately 6foot 3inches plus tall. Paw prints were about 6 inches across.

Anyhow, a word of caution to all our neighbors.

Send in the clones

Saddam Hussein, I'm sorry to say, probably has a better shot at immortality than the rest of us.

That's because the Iraqi tyrant surrounds himself with doubles - people who look so much like him they could be his twin brother.

The story goes that whenever Saddam makes plans to leave one of his palaces, a half a dozen black limos appear in the courtyard, each bristling with its own team of armed bodyguards. Each limo also includes, deep in the back seat, one limited edition Saddam look-a-like.

The limos then simultaneously scoot out different exits at high speed. One of the cars has the real Saddam Hussein in it, but even a sharpshooter couldn't pick out which one. One of these days somebody might shoot a guy who looks like Hussein. It may be some time before we know if they got the right one.

It's not a new dodge.

Albania's whacko ex-tyrant, Enver Hoxha regularly used a double to stand in for him at public spectacles.

Fidel Castro routinely kept one or two fatigued bearded in combat fatigues on call. Josef Stalin employed a whole series of doubles, trading them in on 'later models' as he aged in office.

The usefulness of doubles is pretty obvious.

Guys like Saddam, Castro, Hoxha and Stalin have more than a few folks who would love to see them sniped, knifed, poisoned or blown up real good.

How convenient for the targets then, to have a stand-in to be the fall guy in any assassination attempt. But body doubles have significant peacetime applications too. Think of all the drecky and largely meaningless meetings, award ceremonies, parades and presentations a world leader is expected to attend week in and week out. Wouldn't any overworked Supremo at least toy with the idea of hiring a clone to impersonate him while El Jefe gets to chill out back at the palace with his feet up, his shoes off and a cold one in his hand? It's a great idea when you think about it.

Personally, I'd love to be able to send my double to the weekly staff meeting at the office - not to mention having him play me at those dreary Sunday afternoon tea parties at Aunt Edna's. I know that nobody would miss me and maybe for once I could get all the way through the Sunday New York Times crossword puzzle.

As a career calling, being a professional duplicate has a definite plus side. Doubles can make good money. American actor Tim Watters never even met the last U.S. President, but he had the nose, and the curly hair and the big, wide, infectious Arkansas grin. And for the past few years, Watters made a bundle doing comedic impersonations of Bill Clinton at conventions and conferences all over the world. At the height of his career, Watters was making 15 to 20 appearances a month and grossing $1 million U.S. annually.

Not any more, of course. Clinton is off the world stage and so, by default, is any entertainer unfortunate enough to have been making his living acting like him. That's the downside of being a double - you can find yourself out of work in a heartbeat. Or an assassination. Or a car crash.

More than two dozen gainfully employed Princess Di look-a-likes were instantly unemployed when her boyfriend's Mercedes ploughed into that Parisian bridge abutment back in 1997.

A few - very few - doubles actually get to outlive their models. Think Elvis. The King of Rock n' Roll (if you don't count Little Richard and James Brown) pitched off his toilet and croaked nearly a quarter of century ago. But the Elvis impersonation business has never been...busier. How many people do you figure still dress in polyester leisure suits with zircon buttons, slick back their pompadours with black shoe polish and try to coax money out of crowds with their rendition of Blue Suede Shoes?

Approximately 35,000 world-wide, according to the conservative estimate.

Paul Suszek is less conservative. As the man in charge of the Elvis-A-Rama museum in Las Vegas, Suszek gets to see a lot more Elvis wannabes than he wants to. "There's a million of them out there" grumbles Suszek, "and most of them are terrible."

Chamber of Commerce expands website

The Tourism portion of the new county website is up and running! The address is www.county.haliburton.on.ca so please log in and check it out.

It's been a long, busy, funny, frustrating and rewarding road to get the site together. We thank everyone who cooperated with our constant requests for info and photos. For those who couldn't (or didn't) get back to us, we have done the best we can with what we had and we expect to hear from you!

And for those of you who haven't heard from us and want your business listed in the County Business Directory, go to the web site and fill out the registration sheet. Or if you don't have Internet connection, call us at 286-2675 to send one to you.

As with any 'launch', we know there are errors and omissions, so please let us know of any corrections required. Remember, we can't possibly know if you don't tell us, so please keep us updated with any changes you make.

Interestingly, there have been a number of businesses not interested in being on the site. If anyone can tell us why a business wouldn't want a free listing, we'd love to know.

Remember, this isn't a Chamber site, it's the tourism portion of the new county site. The next phase of the site to be undertaken will be Economic Development, followed by Community and then Government.

Trade Show Season A Success

Another season of trade shows has come to an end and it's been a tremendous success. If we may say so, we did a pretty good job of increasing the visibility of the county. We gave out almost 20,000 Destination Guides and answered thousands of questions about the area.

The most common questions dealt with:

- Requests for maps – people love maps!
- all manner of Trails (hiking, biking, cycling);
- the Haliburton Forest;
- people looking for places to stay while they looked for a cottage to buy; and,
- School of the Arts.

A special thank you goes out to all our volunteer 'boothers', especially to our newest Info Centre associate Elinor Hamilton who spent 7 days at two shows.

Our last evening of the spring was held at the Minden Hospital, thanks to the Health Services Foundation. A painting donated by local artist John Lennard was unveiled and then guests were taken on a tour of the new facility.

Our next Business After Hours will be in September, hosted by Sir Sandford Fleming College, and featuring plans for the new campus.

Remember, you don't have to be a member of the chamber to come out. And it's not a member solicitation night, either; just a social where you meet and network with other business owners.

If you have any questions, please call Carol Moffatt at 286-2675.

SuperBuild

The Chamber of Commerce is still waiting to hear if the SuperBuild application has been successful. In conjunction with the Haliburton Highlands Trails and Tours Network, the Chamber completed the submission of an application which, if successful, will provide financial assistance in three areas:

1. Funding the development of the master plan trail systems in the County;

2. Funding for the construction and installation of additional information kiosks on highways entering the County; and

3. Funding the development and construction of a new welcome center for the County of Haliburton.

Of the three projects, the most ambitious is the development of the new welcome centre for the County. This centre is designed not only to welcome visitors to the County, but also to profile all businesses in the County. As the new home of the Chamber, this location will be providing a wide range of service and information for both tourism marketing and economic development. It is our desire to ensure that all sectors of the Haliburton economy are fully and properly represented.

2002 Destination Guide

You asked for a better, more business-like product that comes out earlier, so here it comes. The details of the 2002 DG are in the works and here's your first fair warning:

Deadline for booking ad space: July 20 (yup, right in the middle of the season - mark it on the calendar now!)

Deadline for submitting material: August 31

Printing: before Christmas 2001

There will NO extensions and no 'deals'.

The Time Travellers Classic Car Club kicked off the summer season with a safety night at Ridgewood Ford in Minden. A total of eight antique cars were checked for safety specs at the meeting. The Time Travellers begin their cruise nights on June 22, alternating Thursdays: in Minden at the Kawartha Dairy and the Haliburton town docks. The group extended thanks to Ridgewood Ford owners Larry and Julie Moynes for their hospitality and generosity. Time Travellers representative John Francis and Larry Moynes are seen at the front with other members of the club last Wednesday.

Volunteer pilots will be taking Haliburton County children and youths under their wings this coming weekend during the 8th annual Young Eagles Program at the Stanhope Airport. The goal of the program is to encourage young people to take an interest in flying. A volunteer pilot from last year's event is seen above with a pair of eager flyers. The aerial photograph of Horseshoe Lake, below, was taken during a Young Eagles flight last year.

Young Eagles coming to Stanhope Airport

Volunteer pilots will take Haliburton County youths aged eight to 17 under their wings at Stanhope Airport this weekend to raise interest in flying. The eighth annual Young Eagles Program at the local airport is expected to attract more than 100 participants.

In the past seven years, more than 800 young people have been introduced to flying.

The goal of the Young Eagles program is to "provide a meaningful flight experience for 1-million young people (world wide) by the 100th anniversary of the Wright Brothers' first powered flight and the Experimental Aircraft Association's (EAA) 50th anniversary in the year 2003."

Participants in the program will have the opportunity to take a close-up look at the airplanes and enjoy a flight, in many cases over their homes and/or schools. They will receive certificates of participation and be entered in the electronic log book, which is posted on the Young Eagles web site at www.youngeagles.com. The names of the participants are also entered in the world's largest log book, which is kept on permanent display at the EAA Air Adventure Museum in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. They will also receive copies of Youth Aviation Magazine and a poster of the cockpit of a Cessna 172 airplane, provided by Sporty's Pilot Shop in Ohio.

The objectives of the program are:

- to encourage young people to become interested in flying.
- to provide young people with an opportunity to gain new perspectives on their community, their lives and the world in which they live
- to raise awareness of aviation career possibilities
- to help young people understand the knowledge necessary to become a pilot
- to respond to concerns that the nation's pool of pilots is getting smaller and older — a situation that could cause a shortage of military and commercial pilots in the coming years.

Young Eagles is a program of the EAA. A survey in 1991, circulated among long-time EAA pilots, revealed the concern that not enough young people were interested in flying. Within a year the Young Eagles Program was developed.

The first Honourary Chairman of the program was award winning actor and pilot Cliff Robertson. The current Honourary Chairman is Brigadier General Chuck Yeager, the first person to fly faster than the speed of sound.

Participants in the Young Eagles Program are required to register and have permission from a parent or guardian.

For more information or to get a registration form, contact the Stanhope Airport at 754-2611.

Kiosk represents start of next phase of trail development kiosks will undoubtedly encourage visitors to return again to make use of the scenic trails and the natural beauty of the area," Gray said. The government of Canada proudly supported the gateway into the trails and tours of Haliburton County with a maximum contribution of $10,217, through the Canada Millennium Partnership Program.

The program contributed up to one third of the funding for the initiative, with individuals and other organizations contributing the other two-thirds.

"Our government was pleased to have the opportunity to work in partnership with the Haliburton Highlands Trails and Tours Network and its sponsors — the County of Haliburton and the Community Economic Development Funding Initiatives Program. Local artists also made an important contribution in ensuring that the kiosks blend with the natural beauty of the area, while at the same time capturing the attention of travellers."

Gray also expressed appreciation for the volunteers who contributed to the success of the project.

He added that the federal government gave its support, but, he continued, "the real motivation came from the people themselves. It is their legacy they leave for future generations."

Proud to co-operate

Ontario Minister of Municipal Affairs and local MPP Chris Hodgson told the audience of nearly 50 people it is events like the grand opening of the kiosks that make him "proud to represent an area where everyone can co-operate."

He said it is not often that all levels of government, local businesses, Chamber of Commerce, Trails and Tours and so many volunteers can work together in partnership for a common goal.

"It's really an honour to stand up here and say thank you from the people of the riding and from the province," Hodgson said. "You've done a tremendous job. It's important to the future of our county and economic development and it's important to our quality of life as we enjoy the Highlands and more and more people will experience why we love the Highlands by experiencing our trails and tours. It's a great idea and I want to say thank you for all your hard work."

Algonquin Highlands Reeve and County Councillor Eleanor Harrison told the audience the County Council was very proud and pleased of the Trails and Tours and the partnerships that they have formed and all the volunteers who made the opening of the kiosks possible. She acknowledged the tremendous amount of time and effort that went into the project.

"It's been a long time since Haliburton County has a welcome centre such as this where people can stop and browse and know what our county has to offer," Harrison said. "I would like to think it would not only make them stop for a while to see what's going on in our county, but I am quite sure that the uniqueness of these kiosks will make them come back time and time again."

On behalf of county council, she thanked everyone who made the project possible.

"It's great for the county; it's great for the businesses; it's great for the tourist industry and we are very proud to have these kiosks as welcome centres to our community," she concluded.

Ricki Woods, chair of the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce Marketing Committee and past chair of the Haliburton County Studio Tour, was the next to speak. On behalf of the Chamber, she congratulated the Trails and Tours Network for the dedication to the project of getting the kiosks for the county. She said anything worth doing takes perseverance and tenacity, which are qualities the organizers and volunteers demonstrated to accomplish the task. "These kiosks are a wonderful introduction to our area," she said. "As a local craftsperson, it's a great pleasure to see the talent that has gone into the design and construction of the kiosks. Each of the individuals who worked on this project is to be congratulated and thanked."

She said the kiosks reflect well on the county and they let visitors know the area has something to offer. "The information is presented in a way that visitors will find entertaining and memorable," she said.

President of the Haliburton Trails and Tours Network, Barrie Martin, had the final words to say at the official opening.

"It is very gratifying to hear the support that the community has for the work of the Haliburton Highlands Trails and Tours Network," Martin, said.

He thanked Hodgson for changing his busy schedule to attend the ceremonies. "We know that demands for your time as a Cabinet Minister are huge," Martin said. "Huge, too, is our appreciation and admiration of your efforts to get out to events such as this. Your presence inspires us to continue the work we have been doing."

Martin offered his appreciation to Eleanor Harrison, saying, "Thank you for being a champion of trails. As a reeve of Algonquin Highlands and a member of County Council, it is obvious you recognize the potential that recreational trail use has for economic development and promoting healthy lifestyles — a light industry that makes the best use of the natural resources of this county."

Addressing Ricki Woods, Martin said, "We value our partnership with the Chamber of Commerce and our relationship with the arts community. The Network can contribute in a very significant way to the Haliburton Highlands being 'a natural work of art'."

"It feels good to be standing in front of this trail information kiosk. This phase of the project involves three kiosks — here, Carnarvon, and Cardiff. We are keeping our fingers crossed that our request for SuperBuild funding will be approved so that we might build five more at gateways and town centres throughout the County," he said.

Martin said the kiosk initiative is one of several projects under way to promote and develop Haliburton County as a premiere trails and tours destination. "The Network's focus to date has been to get the word out about the great trail and tour resources that exist in this county," he said. "We are doing so through our brochures, web site and these kiosks. We also have been busy bringing together and representing all of the trail and tour interests. Having all those interests at the table, in the form of our Board of Directors, has been very worthwhile. We are able to discuss common challenges and opportunities, resolve issues and integrate our marketing, fund-raising and trail and tour development efforts."

"Our first three years of successful operation would not have been possible if it were not for the efforts of many people in this community," he said.

He acknowledged the programs, organizations and people who have contributed to the information kiosk project.

The funding sources included: the Government of Canada's Millennium Partnership; the County of Haliburton; the Haliburton County Development Corporation; and businesses which have purchased advertising.

"Thank you also to the Ontario's Trillium Foundation and Human Resources Development Canada for providing grants that gave the capacity to manage the kiosk project as well as several other projects," he said. "Thank you to all local community groups and businesses — Alfredo Rico, Peter Jennings and Derek Beachli of the Haliburton Builders Association; Rob Stonehouse and his students from Haliburton Highlands Secondary School; and all of the businesses' listed on the kiosk panel."

He offered an extra special thanks to Roy Truchan, project manager; Tilda Truchan and fellow artists for their creative genius and extra efforts; Mary Anne Barkhouse and Michael Belmore, Sergio and Sigi Zrinscak and Leo Sepa, artists who volunteered considerable time to make these kiosks works of art.

Congratulations were offered to the Kiosk committee for a job well done. "Sally Moore, Anne-Marie Cyr, Rachel Gillooly, Peter Overington, thank you for hard work in giving guidance to this project and on organizing this official opening."

"Thank you to the Network's Board of Directors and Executive, several of whom are here today and, to Rachel (Gillooly), the Network's Co-ordinator, for their hard work and perseverance," Martin said. "I would also like to extend a heart felt tribute to a board member who recently passed away — Brenda Chambers. Thank you Brenda. We will remember your dedication and enthusiasm for the natural world and all things outdoors. You are truly 'outdoorable'."

Martin said that while the Network will continue to market trails and tours, the focus will shift to improving the existing trail system and developing new trails that will attract visitors to the county. "Our trail inventory database and our trail development template, a standards manual and signage plan are tools we have developed for upgrading our trails," he said. "These kiosks symbolize progress and hope for the future of the Network. There is much work ahead of us. The Network exists to serve the community. We will need even more support from the community if we are to realize the full potential of our trail and tour resources. If you would like to get involved please talk to one of the Board members."

"Thank you everyone for joining us today to launch our information kiosks. May the Network be with you."

Bob and Rose Thompson, owners of the Noble Motel, assisted with the official ribbon cutting ceremony. They provided the location for the kiosk at the south-western gateway to the Highlands. Following the ribbon cutting, the assembled group was invited into the motel for refreshments and to take part in some games and contests to raise money for the Trails and Tours Network projects.

Trent Severn Waterway News

All lake levels and flows within the waterway were within the summer range for the opening of the navigation season last Friday (May 18). After the period of rain over the weekend, the Kawartha lake levels are currently very close to the normal for the period.

In Haliburton, total storage continues to be approximately 7% lower than the 26 year average value. Some stop logs will be reinstalled during the week to retain the recent rainfall. The flow on the Gull River was augmented to reach the summer minimum at the end of last week.

Three charged following theft of vehicles

As a result of the investigation between the OPP and its Central Crime Unit, one male youth, age 17, from Snowdon Township, and Justin Winder, age 18 years from Minden Township, have been charged in connection with the theft of a 1992 Ford Taurus from a residence located on Highway 7 in Belmont Township.

Both were arrested in Haliburton County. Winder was charged with possession of property obtained by the commission of a crime, theft over $5,000, and breach of probation. The young offender is charged with possession of property obtained by the commission of a crime, theft over $5,000, and failure to comply with a disposition.

Black Bear meeting

tives MNR and Mike Wilton, district biologist, Algonquin Park, MNR (retired).

Cottagers, educators, naturalists, outfitters, guides and resources users at all levels will gain much information from the educational and interactive sessions planned for the event.

The conference is an excellent opportunity for participants to learn about black bear biology, movement and behaviour. Participants will learn about personal and property preparedness, who to contact in 'nuisance' bear situations and essentially 'everything' they want to know about 'living' with black bears.

Friday evening special guests include Janice Longboat, traditional storyteller and medicine woman and Slap Happy, a nationally acclaimed Toronto Improv Troupe.

For more information or to register for this symposium contact the Stewardship office in Bancroft at 1-613-332-3940

Two arrested for vehicle theft

The OPP investigated a theft of a 1994 Ford Explorer from Walker's Auto Repair, located on Highway 35 in Minden, May 22. The investigation revealed that the rear window to the business had been broken, allowing the suspects to get inside the building and remove the keys for the vehicle.

At 11:00 p.m. that evening an Ottawa police officer arrested two males who were driving the stolen vehicle on Montreal Road in Ottawa. The vehicle was not damaged.

Mark Martin age 30 and Alex Nicholson age 27 both of no fixed address were arrested and charged with break, enter and commit an indictable offence and theft over $5000. Both individuals are being held in custody in Ottawa in relation to this incident and other thefts in the Ottawa area.

Police probe rash of break-ins

The OPP investigated a break and enter at the First Baptist Church on Park Street in Haliburton. The incident occurred sometime overnight. Stolen from the location was a small quantity of petty cash. The incident took place on May 22.

The OPP investigated a break and enter at a cottage located on South Water Street in Minden. The investigation revealed that the incident had occurred sometime since Sunday, May 20. The door was forced open and two bottles of beer were missing

Ironing board bargains

Lynn Bertrand, second from right, of the Ingoldsby United Church Women, welcomed customers to the group's yard sale, held Saturday at Cedar Grove Resort. The UCW is raising money to purchase two hypothermia thermometers for the Minden and Haliburton Hospitals. The sale attracted an eager group of buyers and helped the group add to its coffers on the way to an $800 target.

Summer programs will hone basics

Grade 7, 8 and 9 students in the Trillium Lakelands District School Board will have a new opportunity this summer to improve their basic English and math skills at non-credit courses being held throughout the district.

"This is an excellent opportunity for students who might be having some difficulties to get individualized attention in a low-stress learning environment," said Dr. Andy Scott, Superintendent responsible for secondary schools. The programs for grades 7 and 8 students will focus on individual needs, and be based on teacher's recommendations. Grade 9 students will have a chance to upgrade their skills in a structured environment.

In both cases, students' participation needs to be recommended by their principal.

Information on the programs will be distributed by the principal of the students' school. They will be offered from Wednesday, July 5 to Friday, July 21 at sites in Bracebridge, Fenelon Falls, Gravenhurst, Huntsville and, for the first time, Haliburton. Police looking for boat stolen from Carnarvon

On May 24, the OPP investigated a break and enter at a residence on Eagle Lake in Dysart Township. The incident occurred sometime since May 2. The glass in the door was smashed and the screen and glass were smashed out of a porch window. The toilet and sink, dining room table, television, coffee table, end tables, antique sofa and cabinet were also damaged by the intruders.

Mischief

The OPP investigated a mischief complaint at Minden Home Hardware located on Main Street in Minden. Damage had been done to the back door where someone had attempted to pry it open. Also a picnic table had been carried up the hill behind the store. A number of beer bottles and other garbage were found near the table.

Police also investigated a mischief complaint at Kool Licks Ice Cream Parlor on Highland Street in Haliburton. Someone had cut a water hose, broke the exhaust fan, a plastic wire cover, a light bulb, a copper tube and pried two boards from the siding.

Break, Enter and Thefts

The theft of a 1996 Maxum Bowrider powerboat from Northland Marine located in Carnarvon is under investigation. The theft occurred during the night of

May 19-20. The boat is blue, with a white stripe and a bit of gold. It has "Maxum 21xc" written on the side and BLUBYU on the stern. It is possible that the suspects were driving a brown pickup truck, southbound on Highway 35 at approximately 7:30 a.m. on the morning the boat was taken..

Motor Vehicle Collisions

The OPP investigated a single vehicle collision that occurred on Otter Lake Road in Monmouth Township. The male driver, age 25 years, from Scarborough, and three passengers, were northbound on Otter Lake Road when the vehicle, a 2001 Jeep Cherokee spun out of control and rolled, landing in the east ditch. The driver was charged with careless driving. There were no injuries as a result of the May 19 incident.

A two vehicle collision occurred on Buller Road in Lutterworth Township on Saturday, May 19. An ATV, travelling south, driven by a male, struck a northbound 1999 Ford pick-up driven by a female. There were three passengers in the pickup truck. The driver of the ATV was transported to Lindsay Hospital.

On May 20, a single vehicle collision occurred at the intersection of South Lake Road and Bat Lake Road in Minden Township. The investigation revealed that a 1993 Toyota Van had entered the ditch. The driver was not injured and there was no damage to the vehicle, however the driver was charged.

Impaired Driver charged

The OPP investigated an incident on Crooked House Road in Minden Township. Further to information received, John Paul Gardiner, 58, of Minden, was charged with operating a motor vehicle with more than the legal limit of alcohol in his blood. He will appear in Minden Court on August 1, 2001.

Theft of Motor Vehicle

On May 21, the OPP investigated the theft of a 1992, blue Nissan Pathfinder from Fletcher Lake Landing, located on Kawagama Lake Road in Sherbourne Township. The owner advised the police that the vehicle had been locked and parked on May 18. The owner returned on May 21 to discover the vehicle had been stolen.

Carnarvon intersection slated for major upgrade

Haliburton, Victoria Brock MPP Chris Hodgson has announced that the Ontario government is launching a $1.1 million project to upgrade the Highway 35/118 intersection at Carnarvon.

The announcement was made on behalf of Transportation Minister Brad Clark. "Safe and reliable highway access at all times of the year is key to supporting the business and tourist economies of our community," said Hodgson. "I am sure that area residents, cottagers and visitors will be pleased when they see the results of this work later this summer."

The contract was awarded to Royel Paving Limited of King City.

Work at the intersection of Highway 35/118 at Carnarvon includes the construction of new left and right turn lanes on all intersection approaches, resurfacing and installation of permanent traffic signals and new lighting. "I know that this significant upgrade to the intersection will improve traffic flow, enhance road safety and encourage economic expansion in the community," added Hodgson.

Work is scheduled to start in early June 2001, with completion in late July.

"In an increasingly global economy, good highways truly are the road to prosperity," said Transportation Minister Brad Clark, "and, this project is another example of how the Ontario Government continues to invest in safe and efficient highways to support jobs and growth across the entire province." This investment is part of the government's five year, $20 billion Superbuild initiative. The program is designed to build for the future by improving capital planning, priority setting and investment.

"The government's goal is to make entire capital investment process more strategic, more responsive and more accountable," said Hodgson. "Superbuild will facilitate the largest infrastructure building program in Ontario's history, so that our local infrastructure is ready to meet the future needs of our community."

Summer school offered to high school students

Students throughout the Trillium Lakelands District School Board will be able to improve their skills and earn extra credits as part of the board's plans for summer school for secondary students.

Those plans include: A full secondary school credit program from grade 11 - OAC, assuming there are enough students signed up for the courses and that there are staff members available to teach them.

The emphasis will be on Math and English, but some science and social science courses will be offered, as will a co-op program and grade 10 courses in careers and civics. Students may also use these programs to upgrade marks in courses they took during the regular school year. A non-credit program for students in grades 7-10 looking to improve their English and Math skills to prepare for the coming school year will also be available.

"This summer program gives our students the chance to supplement and support the studies they've just completed and prepare for the courses they'll take in the year ahead," says Ward Levine, the board's principal of adult and continuing education.

Students currently in secondary school must register for summer programs through their home school's guidance office. Courses will be offered during July; further details are available from the high school's guidance offices, the board's community learning centres or the Adult Education and Training Centre in Lindsay.

MNR Senior Technician Ross Wray, left, receives a small token of appreciation from Mark Schell, Chair of the Fish and Wildlife Advisory Committee. Wray is retiring after more than 20 years with the Minden office of the MNR. He was a valued liaison officer between the committee and the Ministry.

A lively discussion was held regarding a school dress code, but no vote is to be taken until clarification is supplied by the committee regarding the definition of what constitutes a headcovering, ie hats, kerchiefs, bandanas, etc. Any dress code will have to be discussed by the teachers, the Parents' Council, and the Students' Activity Council, and then be given final approval by the school administration and school board.

May has been a busy month already. May 8 saw staff and grads gather together for breakfast. May 9 HHSS hosted a Grade 8 Students and Parents Open House. The grad prom was held on the cool night of May 12, but was a great success.

Student Council

During the months of March and April, HHSS was full of students fund-raising for various causes. In early March and into April, "Head For A Cure" took place. The fundraiser, in which all proceeds go to cancer research, was organized by Katharine Hagerman and the rest of the SAC. By students and teachers shaving their heads, HHSS raised over $2000 for the cause!

Eugene DeCarlo was also busy planning fund-raising in April. Eugene, Laurie Turner, Kendra Griffin, Jess Swan, Megan Paul and Ms. Halas-Moulton, organized the "30 Hour Famine" which raised about $3000 for World Vision; over 50 students participated in the event!

Looking out over greener pastures

Isn't it wonderful to see all this green around us once more? All that was needed was the rain and everything is so lush... but of course the rain brings out the mosquitoes. Oh dear, trouble in paradise! Hopefully when the weather warms up a little more they won't be so plentiful.

We expect many of you are keeping very busy now. There is always lots to do once the season is upon us. For many it's cleaning time or planting your garden. We know of others who are already on the golf course. We were pleased that a group of golfers took time out to host our tea party last Thursday. The Haliburton Highlands Women's Golf League provided great company for us along with their tasty treats, we send them our thanks.

We have had some very enjoyable times these last few days. At our recent Happy Hour we entertained ourselves with karaoke. We've got some great singers among us. Bill Redgrave, Evelyn Henderson, Margaret Foote, Lillian Millar, Edith Russell and Hilda Gillespie. All these brave souls delighted us with their different renditions. We think we remembered everyone but if not, please excuse us, after all we are getting on!

Another day and more music, this time we were privileged to have our very own concert. A lady by the name of Kim Watson visited and thrilled us with her music. She had the voice of an angel. Kim and her husband hail from Woodstock and were visiting Pastor Dan Millard at the time. Dan very kindly brought them for a visit for us to enjoy, which was so appreciated. We only hope we will have the opportunity of a repeat visit some time. A huge thanks to the volunteers who helped bring the residents to this event.

There have been some surprise visits for a couple of our residents. Hazel Whittaker was overjoyed when her son Curry, from Nashville, Tennessee literally popped in to say hello. Margaret Bessie was delighted to have her niece and nephew from New Brunswick for a short visit.

One of our new games we are having fun with is - Horse Racing. No we don't have horses here but we have the next best thing. It is recordings of horse races and we try to guess who the winner is. We have lots of laughs and though most of us shared the pot, one lady did come out on top, Lillian Millar. We also have shuffleboard, but we haven't played it yet. A very young lady, Margaret Skinner, visits with us Wednesday. She is absolutely adorable. Only eight months old. Her Mom Marylu shares her with us. We look forward each week to her visit. Thanks Marylu. We were more than pleased to have Randy Warburton with us for our Chapel Service this week. Other residents joined in Prayer Friends.

Hazel Clarke and Bea Britain were more than pleased with their manicure over the weekend, while others, Margaret Foote, Violet Danilko, Edith Russell and Hazel Gregory passed the time winding wool. The Gang was here for our Pub Night and the music was enjoyed by many. This group always provides great music and lots of laughs.

We can't sign off without mentioning our card sharks. Now we have these weekly competitions on both floors. Thelda Weston with Bill Redgrave won two games to one vs. Marjory Watt and Harold Orsborne, while on the other floor it was Roy Nichols and Margaret Bessie winning two games to one against Keith Brannigan and Lillian Millar. We were told that Keith and Lillian won their game by coming behind with a euchre and a lone hand. That goes to prove you never count yourself out until the very end.

Upcoming Birthdays in early June are: Dorothea Lynch, June 1; Peggy Packer on June 2; Sid Roberts on June 4; Edna McElwain on June 5; and Winnifred Barnum on June 6. A Happy Birthday to all of you, so make sure you enjoy your special day.

Bye for now. We'll talk to you next week.

Around the County Town

by Nora Snyder (call 286-4450; email <mindenhouse@on.aibn.com>)

The long weekend looked like a great success. The weather was perfect!! The highways were full of travellers. Boats were again on the river. It is good to hear that summer sound again!! Cottages must have been hives of activities, getting ready for our favourite season. Lots of folks downtown. One of the store owners said it was his best Victoria Day holiday weekend yet. That's good news after a long, hard, slow winter!!

Now a little bit of rain. Great to help everything grow. Green up our environment. Put some water in our lakes and rivers. Eliminate fear of fires. Everything is as it should be!!

Once again it is hard to believe that it is time for a new exhibit at the Agnes Jamison Gallery. Beginning on Thursday, May 31 until June 17 there is an exhibit entitled "Painting for Pleasure", a delightful collection of paintings by Jean P. Pollock, a Bobcaygeon artist. At the same time there will be samples of the imaginative and talented works of traditional rug hooking by the Haliburton Highlands Rug Hooking Group. Another display of some of the talented people who live in our part of the world. A not-to-be-missed show!!

The Minden and District Horticultural Society is holding its next monthly meeting on Tuesday, June 5 at the Minden Community Centre at 7:15 p.m. Pauline Ploard, the president of the Minden Society will be speaking on "Everything You Wanted to Know About Bees and Were Afraid To Ask". You are asked to bring a 'rhubarb treat' for the lunch, in keeping with the spring-time meeting.

An additional part of the evening for those of you wanting to add a recipe to the cook book being published by the Ontario Horticultural Society. Please bring a sample of that recipe for tasting. The two recipes being chosen from Minden to be included in this publication will be voted on at this meeting. It sounds like an interesting and busy evening!!

It is time for the annual Minden Museum garage sale on Saturday, June 9 from 8:30 until its done!! This is the key fund-raiser for the Museum so community support is needed and appreciated. If you have items to donate for the sale, please call the museum at 286-3154. Or you could just drop it off during their open hours. So mark that date on your calendar!!

Haliburton Highlands Genealogy Group holds its next meeting on Wednesday, June 13 in the Minden Library at 6 p.m. After some chat and business, Lori Roberts of Photo Solutions Minden, returns by popular request to talk about 'Photography for the Genealogist'. This should be an interesting talk with plenty of ideas and hints for the use, care and protection of our precious photos. The usual 'Bring and Win' event will take place to add fun to the evening. Visitors welcome.

Now it is time to plant. Or is it? We haven't had a frost for ages!! I probably shouldn't have written that. Eh?? Happy planting!!

McKELVEY: In loving memory of a dear husband and father Irvin, who passed away May 29, 1992.

*Though your smile is gone forever
And your hand we cannot touch
Still we do have many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
Your memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part
God has you in His keeping
We still have you in our hearts.
Lovingly remembered always by wife Jean, daughter Betty, son-in-law Alfred.*
